The United States Attorney charges:

COUNT ONE

1. On or about April 10, 2007, in the Western Judicial District of Virginia, the defendant, EDNA LEDOUX JAMIESON, a resident of Moneta, Virginia, did willfully make and subscribe U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, for the calendar year 2006, which was verified by a written declaration that it was made under the penalties of perjury. The defendant, EDNA LEDOUX JAMIESON, knew that the return, which was filed with the Internal Revenue Service, was not true and correct as to every material matter, in that the return failed to disclose that she was engaged in the operation of a business activity from which she derived gross receipts or sales and received income. The defendant, EDNA LEDOUX JAMIESON, then and there well knew and believed that she was required by law and regulation to disclose the operation of this business activity, the gross receipts or sales he derived therefrom, and the income from the business activity.

2. All in violation of Title 26, United States Code, Section 7206(1).
