DEFENDANT: Lane Anderson
CASE NUMBER: 4:11-cr-00099-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall pay restitution to the victims in the instant offense in an amount to be determined by the Court at sentencing. The defendant shall cooperate with the U.S. Probation Officer in developing a monthly payment plan consistent with a schedule of allowable expenses provided by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant may be required to participate in an IRS offset program which may include the garnishment of wages or seizure of all or part of any income tax refund to be applied toward the restitution balance. You may be required to participate in the Treasury Offset Program which would include the seizure of any government payment to be applied toward the restitution balance.

The defendant shall provide complete access to financial information, including disclosure of all business and personal finances, to the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not apply for, solicit, or incur any further debt, included but not limited to loans, lines of credit, or credit card charges, either as a principal or cosigner, as an individual, or through any corporate entity, without first obtaining written permission from the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall cooperate fully with the Internal Revenue Service in determining and paying any tax liabilities. The defendant shall provide to the Internal Revenue Service all requested documents and information for purposes of any civil audits, examinations, collections, or other proceedings. It is further ordered that the defendant file accurate income tax returns and pay all taxes, interest, and penalties due and owing by him to the Internal Revenue Service.

The defendant shall obtain prior written approval from the U.S. Probation Office before entering into any form of self-employment.

The defendant shall not be engaged in any business that offers securities, investments, or business opportunities to the public. The defendant is further prohibited from engaging in telemarketing, direct mail, or national advertising campaigns for business purposes without the written permission of the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, residence, adjacent structures, office or vehicle, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the residence or vehicle may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. This condition may be invoked with or without the assistance of law enforcement, including the U.S. Marshals Service.

The defendant shall not patronize business establishments where more than fifty percent of the revenue is derived from the sale of alcoholic beverages.
