DEPUTY CLERK YEP

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA §
v. § Case No. 3:12-cr-00115-B (1)
PATIENCE LAVON JACKSON §

PLEA AGREEMENT

Patience Lavon Jackson, Bryan Sample (the defendant's attorney), and the United States of America agree as follows:

1. Rights of the defendant: Jackson understands that she has the rights
 - a. to plead not guilty;
 - b. to have a trial by jury;
 - c. to have her guilt proven beyond a reasonable doubt;
 - d. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses in her defense; and
 - e. against compelled self-incrimination.

2. Waiver of rights and plea of guilty: Jackson waives these rights and pleads guilty to the offense alleged in Count 1 of the Indictment, charging a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1349, that is, Conspiracy to Commit Mail and Wire Fraud. Jackson understands the nature and elements of the crime to which she is pleading guilty, and agrees that the factual resume she has signed is true and will be submitted as evidence.

3. Sentence: The maximum penalties the Court can impose include:
 - a. imprisonment for a period not to exceed twenty years;

- b. a fine not to exceed $250,000, or twice any pecuniary gain to the defendant or loss to the victim(s);
- c. a term of supervised release of not more than three years, which may be mandatory under the law and will follow any term of imprisonment. If Jackson violates the conditions of supervised release, she could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release and be subject to additional supervised release;
- d. a mandatory special assessment of $100;
- e. restitution to victims or to the community, which is mandatory under the law, and which Jackson agrees may include restitution arising from all relevant conduct, not limited to that arising from the offenses of conviction alone;
- f. costs of incarceration and supervision.

4. Court's sentencing discretion and role of the Guidelines: Jackson understands that the sentence in this case will be imposed by the Court after consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The guidelines are not binding on the Court, but are advisory only. Jackson has reviewed the guidelines with her attorney, but understands no one can predict with certainty the outcome of the Court's consideration of the guidelines in this case. Jackson will not be allowed to withdraw her plea if her sentence is higher than expected. Jackson fully understands that the actual sentence imposed (so long as it is within the statutory maximum) is solely in the discretion of the Court.

5. Mandatory special assessment: Prior to sentencing, Jackson agrees to pay to the U.S. District Clerk the amount of $100, in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case.

6. Defendant's agreement: Jackson shall give complete and truthful information and/or testimony concerning her participation in all relevant conduct related to the offense of conviction. Upon demand, Jackson shall submit a personal financial statement under oath and submit to interviews by the government and the U.S. Probation Office regarding her capacity to satisfy any fines or restitution. Jackson expressly authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to immediately obtain a credit report on her in order to evaluate her ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court. Jackson fully understands that any financial obligation imposed by the court, including a restitution order and/or the implementation of a fine, is due and payable immediately. In the event the Court imposes a schedule for payment of restitution, Jackson agrees that such a schedule represents a minimum payment obligation and does not preclude the U.S. Attorney's Office from pursuing any other means by which to satisfy her full and immediately enforceable financial obligation. Jackson understands that she has a continuing obligation to pay in full as soon as possible any financial obligation imposed by the court.

7. Government's agreement: The government will not bring any additional charges against Jackson based upon the conduct underlying and related to the defendant's plea of guilty. The government will file a Supplement in this case, as is routinely done in every case, even though there may or may not be any additional terms. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities, nor does it prohibit any civil or administrative proceeding against Jackson or any property.

8. Violation of agreement: Jackson understands that if she violates any provision of this agreement, or if her guilty plea is vacated or withdrawn, the government will be free from any obligations of the agreement and free to prosecute Jackson for all offenses of which it has knowledge. In such event, Jackson waives any objections based upon delay in prosecution. If the plea is vacated or withdrawn for any reason other than a finding that it was involuntary, Jackson also waives objection to the use against her of any information or statements she has provided to the government, and any resulting leads.

9. Voluntary plea: This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force or threats, or of promises apart from those set forth in this plea agreement. There have been no guarantees or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

10. Waiver of right to appeal or otherwise challenge sentence: Jackson waives her rights, conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742, to appeal from her conviction and sentence. She further waives her right to contest her conviction and sentence in any collateral proceeding, including proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 and 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Jackson, however, reserves the rights (a) to bring a direct appeal of (i) a sentence exceeding the statutory maximum punishment, or (ii) an arithmetic error at sentencing, (b) to challenge the voluntariness of her plea of guilty or this waiver, and (c) to bring a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

11. Representation of counsel: Jackson has thoroughly reviewed all legal and factual aspects of this case with her lawyer and is fully satisfied with that lawyer's legal representation. Jackson has received from her lawyer explanations satisfactory to her concerning each paragraph of this plea agreement, each of her rights affected by this agreement, and the alternatives available to her other than entering into this agreement. Because she concedes that she is guilty, and after conferring with her lawyer, Jackson has concluded that it is in her best interest to enter into this plea agreement and all its terms, rather than to proceed to trial in this case.

----- NOTHING FURTHER THIS PAGE -----

12. Entirety of agreement: This document is a complete statement of the parties' agreement and may not be modified unless the modification is in writing and signed by all parties.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED this 20th day of July, 2012.
